PECULIAR ACCIDENTS.

Philip Decker, son of former Councilman Benjamin Decker, was badly injured in a peculiar accident at his home at Burlington, N. J., yesterday. He had just returned from boarding school, where he has shown up as a clever athlete. To display his ability to several friends, young Decker constructed a trapeze by placing a bar between two meat hooks. He was climbing to a seat on the trapeze, when the bar slipped, and, falling, both wrists were pierced by the sharp hook. The boy hung suspended in the air, while his young companions fled in terror. A member of the household heard their screams, and the boy was taken down as quickly as possibly and removed to the house. An artery was punctured and the boy was saved from bleeding to death by the speed with which a physician rushed to his aid.

For almost about 10 minutes Saturday afternoon, with his thigh punctured, Amazea Jastagles, six years old, hung on a sharp picket of an iron fence on east Nineteenth street, New York. Young Jastagles, with a number of other youngers, was climbing upon the picket fence in front of the house. The fence is about four feet high and the boys were trying to outdo each other in stunts upon it. Amazea was trying to balance himself on one foot, when he slipped and the picket entered his thigh. Screaming with fright, the other boys ran away, leaving their companion hanging head downward. Nearly 10 minutes elapsed before two men saw the boy's predicament and lifted him off the fence.

FALLING OFF IN RECEIPTS.

Treasury receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, will show a marked falling off in the receipts, as compared with the year 1907, and a large increase in the expenditures. The excess of expenditures over receipts for the year will approximate $60,000,000, which has been exceeded only twice since the civil war.

Total receipts this year will be shown to have been about $599,000,000, or $64,000,000 less than for the fiscal year 1907. Customs receipts will be shown to have fallen off about $46,000,000 from those of 1907, while the receipts from internal revenue sources will be short nearly $19,000,000. Miscellaneous receipts will show a slight gain.

Disbursements for the year will be shown to have aggregated about $659,000,000, or $80,000,000 more than for 1907, and $54,000,000 more than for any other fiscal year since 1865, not excepting the Spanish war period.

The Panama canal, during the closing year, will have cost the government $38,000,000, as against $27,000,000 for the year 1907.

PLAN TO KILL RATS.

Assistant Health Commissioner Winn, of St. Louis, has announced that on Monday he will begin a crusade which, he expects, will exterminate rats in St. Louis. He has discovered a new virus which, he believes, will eradicate the pest. Rats from several parts of the city will be inoculated with the virus, and if his theory works, he says that within a few months rodents will be unknown in St. Louis.

The plan which Dr. Winn will try is to inoculate several live rats with the virus in a similar manner that a person is vaccinated. The virus will cause the rodent to become very sick and get a high fever. The fever will cause it to seek fresh air, and thus prevent it from dying in its hole. The disease which is produced by the serum is highly contagious to rats. Experiments which the physician has made show the odor emanating from a "patient" attracts other rodents, and they in turn become affected with the malady. The rat dies, however, practically without pain.

A MIRACLE CONFIRMED.

A diocesan commission has been conducting an investigation at Remiremont, France, of an alleged miracle, and after having heard 107 witnesses on Saturday affirmed the reality of the supernatural event.

During a violent hailstorm in the month of May hailstones were picked up, it is alleged, bearing images of the Virgin on their surface. Contact with the earth had split them in half and on the smooth inner surface were the miraculous pictures. Local Catholics consider the phenomena a divine response and rebuke to the action of the municipal council in vetoing a proposed procession in honor of the Virgin. The secretary of the Academy of Sciences attributes the phenomena to photofulgural or vaporographic impressions of certain medals struck in honor of the Virgin.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Robert Ohnmeiss, jr., assistant treasurer and paying teller of the Marine Trust Company, of Atlantic City, was arrested Saturday night, after he had confessed to taking $20,500 from the bank vaults to use in stock operations, which he had conducted in boardwalk bucket shops. The specific charge against the young man is that of stealing $5,500, which he raised on a draft drawn on another local bank, but the other charges for the larger sum are incorporated in the complaint, and he will be tried eventually on the accusation of securing the entire amount. The defaulting official was examined before Magistrate Grove Saturday night, and he is still in jail, because of inability to raise $11,000 bail. His father, who is president of the Egg Harbor Commercial Bank, and a capitalist, has offered bail, but must furnish an indorser for the bond, which will probably be done today.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 29, 1908.

MAYOR PAFF, following his semi-yearly custom, will this week issue instructions regarding the use of fireworks July 4, and the police will be directed to see that they are carried out. The use of the small powder cracker and display fireworks will be permitted. The use of large cannon crackers and cap pistols, as in former years, will be forbidden. Toy pistols will be confiscated by the police. It is hoped that the police will enforce the law this year, and make examples of such persons as persist in defying state and municipal statutes. The officers in the different beats could be held responsible by the Mayor for the observance of his orders. The laws, in many instances, are disregarded, and sick and nervous people are subjected to torture in order that stupid gratification can be afforded certain individuals. The enforcement of the state and city laws in this respect is of more importance than those relating to the observance of Sundays, and while the venders of soda water and cigars on that day are being haled before the Police Court, the sellers of toy pistols, cannoncrackers and other dangerous devices should meet with the same fate. Toy pistols are already in evidence in this city, and should no attempt be made to enforce the law, next Saturday and Sunday will witness the insanity of previous years.

Dangerous bombs, pistols, toy cannon, toy and real pistols and guns of all descriptions will be officially tabooed in Washington. Maj. Sylvester's orders also will prohibit the use of "any and all chemical mixtures and dynamite caps, used and exploded for making excessive noises by ignition, striking or placing under the wheels of street railway cars." Orders will be given to see that no sales of fireworks or explosives shall be made to any child under the age of sixteen years. The police will be instructed to pay especial attention to the enforcing of this regulation, and any storekeeper or vender of fireworks who sells his wares in violation of it will run the risk of being arrested and haled to court.

THE retirement tomorrow of Secretary of War Taft will leave but two men in Mr. Roosevelt's cabinet who were there when he succeeded to the presidency upon the death of President McKinley. These are Secretary of State Root and Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. Mr. Root was secretary of war when Mr. Roosevelt became president, in September, 1901. He shortly afterward retired from the cabinet, but was persuaded to re-enter it upon the death of Secretary of State Hay. There have been more changes and shifts in President Roosevelt's cabinet than in that of any of his predecessors. He has had two secretaries of state, Hay and Root. He has had three secretaries of the treasury, Gage, Shaw and Cortelyou. With the succession of Luke E. Wright he will had three secretaries of war, Root, Taft and Wright. He has had three attorney generals, Knox, Moody and Bonaparte; five postmaster generals, Smith, Payne, Wynne, Cortelyou and Meyer; five secretaries of the navy, Long, Moody, Morton, Bonaparte and Metcalf. He has had two secretaries of the interior, Hitchcock and Garfield. He has had one secretary of agriculture, Wilson, and three secretaries of commerce and labor, Cortelyou, Metcalf and Straus. The retirement of Secretary Taft has led to some speculation as to how long Mr. Wilson will continue at the head of the Department of Agriculture. The chances are that he will continue to serve through the term of Mr. Roosevelt, and should secretary Taft succeed to the presidency, it is more than likely that Secretary Wilson would like to continue in the cabinet. It will be twelve years next March since Wilson became secretary of agriculture. He is 73 years old, and acts on the principle that with officeholders few die and none resign.

WHILE the American naval fleet which sailed from the Atlantic to the Pacific is preparing in Californian waters to continue its journey around the globe, that which is regarded the greatest fleet that ever assembled for actual service under one command is entering upon an impressive series of manoeuvers in the North Sea. There gathered off Esbierg, on the Norwegian coast, Saturday, under the flag of Lord Charles Beresford, a combination of the British channel fleet, the Atlantic fleet and the home fleet, comprising no fewer than 28 first class battleships, 19 armored cruisers, many of which are of battleship strength; 50 protected cruisers and gunboats and 186 destroyers and torpedo boats—a total of 283 vessels. This will probably make Mr. Roosevelt so envious that he will send another message to Congress at its next session demanding more battleships.

UNDER the caption "Solid Old Alexandria" the Richmond Journal reproduces an editorial which recently appeared in the Gazette showing the high standing of Alexandria securities. And that is just what Alexandria is—solid. Her people are not blusterers, boomers or schemers, but go right on in the even tenor of their way, attending to their own business and what they have is their own; so such a community must, of necessity, be "solid."

DIRECTORS of the Coney Island Jockey Club decided Saturday at an informal conference of the Sheepshead Bay track managers that racing as it is conducted under the new anti-betting law is indeed the "sport of kings." In figuring up the receipts of seven days they will lose $250,000.

SECRETARY TAFT was tendered an informal dinner at the St. Regis, in New York, Friday night, by Jacob G. Schmidlapp, president of the Union Trust Company. Nearly all the guests were big trust magnates, and such, it is expected, will finance Mr. Taft's campaign.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

With the arrival of contending forces, Washington today became the center of activity in the fight over the chairmanship of the republican national committee. Frank H. Hitchcock arrived early in the day and talked with several of his friends regarding the chairmanship at his apartments. At the same hour, Arthur Voyra's friends poured into the city from Ohio. They were Henry Williams, chairman of the republican state executive committee; State Auditor Guilbert, and Walter Brown, chairman of the republican central committee. There's was a "gun shoe" entrance, but they let it be known that they will fight for Voyra to the end.

Secretary Taft, reached here Saturday night and looking happier than ever after a Sunday's rest at home. He was at his desk this morning at the War Department disposing of the few "loose ends" preparatory to his resignation tomorrow. The exodus from his office has already begun. Chests of papers, speeches and letters have been packed by his secretary and assistants. The pressing business of the secretary himself was the signing of hundreds of letters acknowledging the congratulations that have been pouring in upon him from all parts of the country while he was away enjoying commencement week. Secretary Taft's Sunday was a quiet one. one. He went to church in the morning and in the evening was at the Chevy Chase Country Club with Mrs. Taft, his brother Charles and his son Charlie. General Luke Wright, the new war secretary, called at the department to talk over of the problems that will come under his jurisdiction. Secretary Taft bequeaths no vexing "hold-overs" to his successor. About the only matter undecided will be the appointment of a chief of the engineering corps of the army. There are no other pressing questions before the department. Mrs. Taft was no less occupied preparing for the departure for Hot Springs, Va. The Taft house on 16th street is being dismantled. Gen. Wright was the first to reach the office in the War Department. Occupying the secretary's office he met the chiefs and conferred with departmental affairs. Among the callers were Senor Arango, the Panama minister, and Senor Arosemena, who came to confer with reference to the elections in Panama.

Albert Brown, the colored man, convicted of murder, was hanged at the District jail this morning. The drop fell at 10:04 and he was pronounced dead and taken down in thirty-two minutes. Just one minute and a half elapsed from the time he left the cell until the drop fell.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, is here to hold a conference with the attorneys in the Virginia-West Virginia, debt case, in which he was named referee by the U. S. Supreme Court. In this conference it will be decided where the evidence is to be taken. Richmond is now regarded as the most likely place.

In a statement issued today Senator Foraker denied that he has formed a coalition with Secretary Taft whereby a fight over the senatorship in Ohio may be averted this fall. "I have nothing to add about politics to what I have already said," began Senator Foraker, "except that there is no foundation whatever for the stories that have been appearing in the newspapers about negotiations upon the part of our mutual friends to secure Secretary Taft's support of me for a return to the Senate in return for my support of him as the republican candidate. It will be time enough to consider the senatorial question after we have secured a republican legislature. I am not bothering about that question now."

Herbert Squires, who has just resumed his duties as minister to Panama after a trip to Washington, cabled to the State Department today, stating that the municipal elections yesterday had passed off gracefully.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Theodore A. Bell, of California, was on Saturday at Denver chosen temporary chairman of the democratic national convention by the committee on convention arrangements. No selection was made for the permanent chairmanship, this matter going over until the full committee meeting can be held.

Other appointments made by the committee on convention arrangements, which will probably be made permanent, were as follows:

General Secretary—Urey Woodson, of Kentucky.

Assistant General Secretary—Edwin Sefton, of Washington, D. C.

Sergeant-at-arms—John I. Martin of Missouri.

Chief Doorkeeper—Eugene W. Sullivan, of Illinois.

Chaplain for opening day—Right Rev. James J. Keane, archbishop of Wyoming.

Mr. Bryan is said to favor Congressman Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, for permanent chairman of the democratic national convention.

Because friends refused to allow him to play with them in a match game of baseball on Saturday afternoon, John Thomas Queensberry, of Manchester, walked off the field with the remark that as nobody seemed to care for him he would commit suicide. Later he took laudanum from the effects of which he died.

News of the Day.

Four persons are reported killed and several injured in a wreck at Holbrook, Ariz., early today.

The sultan of Turkey has yielded to the powers and ordered the withdrawal of his troops from Persia.

Obaldia, a candidate for the presidency of the republic, in the elections that will take place next month in Panama City. The government party is downcast by the result.

The election showed that the majority of the voters do not want State-wide prohibition, which was advocate by ex-Senator Carmack. Gov. Patterson stood for local option. Joseph W. Byrns yesterday defeated John Wesley Gaines, member of Congress from the Hermitage district, by a majority of about 1,500.

She suffered painful injuries from the explosion of a gas stove and has not yet recovered from the shock suffered at that time. Mr. Lunn has proved most devoted, and has taken his bride away to test the beneficient effect of entire change as a restorative.

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.

An annular eclipse of the sun occurred yesterday. Its duration in this latitude was from 9:37 a. m. to 12:50 p. m. Many men, women and children in this city and vicinity saw the eclipse from beginning to end, as it was an ideal day for the observation. A peculiar thing occurred at 11 o'clock, which the scientists said was out of the ordinary. A leaden darkness spread all over the heavens and there was a diminution of general light totally different from the usual appearance of the sky when a cloud crosses the sun causing an unusual appearance to things on earth. At 11:06 o'clock, the maximum of observation, the sun appeared as a crescent with the points turned downward.

Battle with a Mad Woman.

San Francisco, June 29.—Battling desperately for life, Matron Ellen Smith fought today for a half hour in a locked cell against the superhuman strength of a mad woman in the detention ward of the Central Emergency Hospital here. Help came just in time to save her from being choaked to death. When Matron Smith entered the cell to disrobe her charge the maniac slammed to the grated door and leaped upon her keeper. Back and forth the two struggled, the mad woman having a grip upon Miss Smith's throat and the latter fighting her hardest for life. It was fully half an hour before help came, and the mad woman had forced Miss Smith to the floor and was choking her to death. Five minutes more and she would have been dead. As it was, masses of her hair had been torn out and both women were almost disrobed by their struggles in the fight for life.

Turkey Preparing for Defense.

Constantinople, June 29.—Turkey is mobilizing her forces on the Russo-Turkish frontier, determined to resist the threatened "band grab" of Russia in Persia.

Stories of Russia's desire for a permanent foothold in Persia, coupled with the Anglo-Russian agreement regarding the control of Macedonia and Russia's threat of intervention, have thoroughly aroused the shah, and the cabinet is afraid that he may take the initative and precipitate a conflict.

It is charged that Germany is urging the sultan to these warlike steps.

Sun Worshippers.

Lowell, Mass., June 29.—Interest has been aroused by the doings of the Mazdazoans, or sun worshippers, who this week are holding a national convention here. Clad in filmy, almost transparent robes of silk, sleeveless and decolette twelve Lowell women, all members of prominent families, surrounded "Dr." Otoman Kar Adusht Hanish, of Chicago, the high priest of the sect, and took part in a spectacular sun worship service The ceremony concluded with a general exchange by the believers of the "Kiss of Peace." Dr. Hanish starting the sacred oculation with the twelve elect at the altar.

Gov. Hughes today dismissed the charges made against William Leary, state superintendent of elections for the Metropolitan election district of New York, which were made by a committee representing the Independence League. It was alleged that last fall the superintendent failed to properly supervise the conduct of the election.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Denver Convention.

Denver, June 29.—"There will be no 'allies' in the democratic national convention. Mr. Bryan will receive not less than 703 votes on the first ballot, even if the names of Geo. Gray and Gov. Johnson are presented, but there is a strong likelihood that his nomination will be by acclamation."

After consultation with a number of his friends, James A. Dahlman, of Omaha, leader of the Nebraska delegation to the democratic national convention, made the above confident prediction today.

Up to the present Dahlman declines to talk about the chairmanship. According to Dahlman Bryan will be satisfied with any vice presidential candidate who will stand for his policies and who is big enough to be a figure in national affairs. But if any attempt is made by the so-called conservatives to force one of their representatives on the ticket the Nebraskan will take an active hand and name the running mate himself.

A man close to Taggart today declared there was no question that the Indiana man was the personal choice of a majority of the present committee, and most of these men will succeed themselves.

This may mean the one real fight of the convention. Men who should know declare that Bryan wants Dahlman. If he is Bryan's choice the Omaha mayor can be depended on to put up a hot scrap against Taggart.

From another source it is learned that if Taggart should be able to influence enought committeemen in his favor to ensure his election, Bryan will not permit him to manage the campaign. Instead the commoner will name his own personal manager and will place him in charge of the fighting and will insist that Taggart confine his efforts to the national committee affairs excusively.

Unrest in Portugal.

Lisbon, June 29.—Fearing a campaign of terrorism as a result of yesterday's tremendous demonstration by republicans, in which the suggestion of Alfonso Costa that the youthful King Manuel abdicate the throne was met with deafening cheers, the government today caused dozens of arrests of the ringleaders of the demonstration, doubled the street patrols of police and threw cordons of police around all the public buildings. Costa is missing today, and all efforts of the police to find him have proved unsuccessful.

In an effort to allay the public bitterness caused by the disclosures of illegal allowances made to the crown during the reign of his father, King Carlos, King Manuel today issued a proclamation, pledging himself to the repayment of every dollar of such allowances, their total being over $11,000,000.

Manuel is advocating a conciliatory spirit in dealing with the trouble, but he is being overruled by the older heads who say that any attempt at compromise will result in the overthrow of the government.

Officers to be Court Martialed.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—A court martial of the officers of the Black sea fleet, which is intended to serve as an example to naval officers in the future, has been ordered by the czar. The Black sea fleet has been conducting maneuvres for the last week. Here is the record since June 23:

Three collision of vessels, one boiler explosion, one gun explosion, two mutinies owing to bad food, a drunken captain failing from the bridge and not a single target as yet hit in the gun practice. The czar is thoroughly incensed over the showing of the fleet's officers, and a shake-up in the ministery of marine is likely to result. Since Rojestvensky disclosed the sad condition of Russia's naval policy the czar has been trying to correct the evils and build up a creditable navy.

Will Challenge For the Cup.

Glasgow, June 29.—Sir Thomas Lipton has made the positive statement in an interview today that he would challenge for the America's cup. He will sail a cutter-rigged yacht, built to conform with the new rules of the New York Yacht Club. Sir Thomas even went so far as to say he would let the New York club dictate the size of the challenger. He will build two boats and select the final challenger after a series of races between the two. The new challenger will probably be called Shamrock IV.

New York, June 29.—The New York Yacht Club announces that it will accept Sir Thomas Lipton challenge for the America's cup.

Women in Sneath Skirts.

New York, June 29.—Four hundred thousand girls and women of the three quarters of a million people who spent Sunday at Coney Island yesterday are discussing a near-riot which followed the appearance of two shapely women in sheath skirts on crowded Surf avenue. So tightly did the gowns fit them that there was no doubt that the women were shapely and 10,000 men, women and children crowded to see them as they alighted from an automobile. It took a hundred policemen to scatter the crowd and for an hour the restaurant into which they escaped was besieged by the throne.

Destroyed By Dynamite.

San Francisco, June 29.—Four persons were killed and many injured by a dynamite explosion which destroyed a grocery store and the flats on the upper floors adjoining a saloon building, early today. The fronts of the structures landed across the street and a fire followed. It is supposed to be the work of thugs who have been engaging in similar outrages, it is alleged, on behalf of defendants in the graft cases. Disemeyer, who owned the property, is yet connected with the graft prosecution. Windows were broken in the Glenn Park section of the city.

Ito Recalled.

Tokio, June 29.—The mikado today recalled Governor-General Marquis Ito from Korea and appointed General Nogi, one of the heroes of the war with Russia, in his place. This move of the mikado is intended as a pacificatory measure. Ito's rule in Korea has been marked with the utmost severity, and his repressive measures are held responsible for the rebellion that is now being waged. Nogi is a man of more gentle temperment, and it is hoped that his assumption of control will do more to restore order than a dozen armies.

Fighting in Mexico.

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Further fighting in Mexico is threatened before the day is over, according to advices received here. Formidable bodies of revolutionists are reported to be marching on both Torreon and Matamoras. Revolutionary leaders predict Ciudad Porfirio Diaz will be captured. It is reported that the uprising at mines owned by Americans and the assassination of United States officials are planned by revolutionists. The immediate purpose is to precipitate trouble between Mexico and the United States. Papers captured indicate both A. F. Sharpe, collector of customs, and postmaster J. A. Smith, of this city, were to have been killed.

Reports from Las Vacas, where newspaper men have penetrated, indicate a hard battle was fought. Fifteen insurgents and nine soldiers were killed while scores were wounded. The fact that Benito Juarez, son of Mexico's great patriot, had been brought into the uprising as the intended beneficiary of Diaz's overthrow gives the uprising greater significance. In this connection it is reported a wealthy ranchman living near Saltillo, one of Juarez' supporters, is supplying the funds for the revolution and has taken the field in person.

Harry Thaw.

New York, June 29.—Supreme court Justice Dowling today denied the application of Harry K. Thaw for an order for his removal from Matteawan to some other asylum. In his decision, which is the result of a move distinct from that now being made in Thaw's behalf at White Plains, Justice Dowling says: "This man is a dangerously insane person, who is not to be punished but to be kept under restraint that he may injure neither himself or any one else."

White Plains, N. Y. June 29.—Harry Thaw is to have his desire that a jury pass upon the question of his sanity. While his habeas corpus hearing was in progress here today, his counsel, A. Russell Peabody, in a statement to the United Press, declared that Justice Isaac Mills had promised that he would grant a jury hearing on the question of their client's sanity at the October term of the court.

White Plains, N. Y., June 29.—After changing his mind three times Justice Mills today decided to remand Harry Thaw to Poughkeepsie jail until Monday, July 13 after hearing argument on a habeas corpus which so far has kept White's slayer from being sent back to Matteawan. On that date arguments will be heard on the advisability of granting a jury trial to determine Thaw's sanity.

Over the Cliff.

Vienna, June 29.—A huge automobile used by touring parties on trips through the mountains plunged over a cliff of the Taunus mountains near Wiesbaden last night, killing three and injuring six of the sixteen passengers. The other seven passengers were also injured, but it is believed that they will recover.

Congressman Sherman Recovering.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 29.—Unless there are unexpected developments Congressman James S. Sherman will leave Lakeside Hospital for his home at Utica, N. Y., Wednesday. Today his physicians reported he is rapidly recovering his strength and is very cheerful. His temperature, pulse and respiration are normal.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 29.—All through the first hour the market was extremely sluggish. Price movements were narrow. At the end of an hour the leading stocks had hardly changed from Saturday's final. Government bonds unchanged; others quiet.

After the noon hour a decidedly strong tone developed and prices moved up to range of about one point over the lowest.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

As everybody in England knows, last Thursday was not King Edward's actual birthday. He was born at Buckingham Palace Nov. 9, 1841, but November is an unpropitious season for court festivities. After careful consideration the king selected June 25 as his official birthday. Perhaps the choice was influenced by the fact that, on June 25, 1857, his father gained the title of Prince Consort.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED.

At an early hour yesterday morning a pleasure boat from Washington in which were several men stopped at the shipyard in this city and one of the party called up the station house over the telephone and announced that John McCalip, 22 years old, of Washington, had been drowned in the channel opposite Sandy Bar, just below Fort Foote, and a short distance below this city. Lieutenant Smith notified the Washington authorities, and later the police boat of that city started down the river. Early in the afternoon the body was recovered and conveyed to Washington.

The Vigilant stopped here on her way down and took Officer Knight aboard, who was in the small boat when the body was hooked.

On Saturday evening McCalip and several companions started for a cruise down the river in the auxiliary yacht Duchess. They anchored near the dyke for the night. McCalip awoke about 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and sailed the boat in deep water for the purpose of taking a swim before dressing. He dived overboard and swam several hundred yards from the boat and had turned about to return, when he was overcome, it is supposed, by cramps. He called for help, and then sank. His companions started the engine of the boat and hurried to his rescue, but when they reached the spot McCalip had gone down for the last time.

For half an hour or more the young man's friends searched for his body, but were unable to locate it. One of the members of the party attempted to reach it by diving, but was unsuccessful.

The unfortunate young man was born at Crawfordsville, Ind., and went to Washington about a year ago, where he was employed as an electrician.

McCalip's death brought to a close a pretty romance, dating from childhood. For several years he had been engaged to Miss Julia Hanna, of Crawfordsville, Ind., his native town, and within a week or so they were to have been married.

Several months ago McCalip and Harold B. White bought a sailing sloop, on which they were cruising at the time of the accident. For the past two months they had spent their spare time overhauling the craft and changing it into an auxiliary yacht The boat was launched about a week ago, and on Saturday evening her owners started on their first cruise. They had intended sailing down the river as far as Colonial Beach.

SENT TO JAIL FOR VAGRANTS.

Timothy Madden was arraigned in the Police Court this morning charged with attempting to assault Peyton Ballenger. The alleged offense took place about 12 o'clock Saturday night near the corner of King and Alfred streets. Charles Uten was also arraigned charged with being a party to the assault. Herbert Griffith, yardmaster of the Southern Railway, came to Mr. Ballenger's assistance, and Madden was knocked down and out. He was then, with Uten, taken in custody and turned over to Lieutenant Bettis and Officers Beach and Rawlett. Mr. Ballenger stated that he and Mr. Griffith were proceding up King street, when Madden, who was leaning against a fence, accosted him and said "I want you." Mr. Ballenger started back and asked him what business he had with him, when, Mr. Ballenger alleged, Madden attempted to draw something from a hind pocket. Mr. Ballenger, at this juncture, struck Madden, when the latter called to Uten to come and bring his razor. Mr. Griffith had in the meantime came up, and he and Mr. Ballenger took charge of Madden and Uten and telephoned for the police. Madden, in his defense, said Mr. Ballenger applied an offensive epithet to him as he passed, whereupon the prisoner used equally objectionable language toward Mr. Ballenger and his companion, when he was attacked knocked down and kicked. Madden said he did not call upon Uten to bring his razor, but to come with his cane. Uten denied having anything to do with the row. Justice Caton sent Madden and Uten to jail for 60 days under the vagrant act. Madden had with him a number of cards on which was printed poetry headed "A Cripple's Appeal." Madden says he came to Alexandria yesterday from Warrenton. He has at different times during the past few years lived in this city. A pair of steel knuckles were found several yards from the spot where the trouble occurred.

MR. GREEN'S APPOINTMENT.

Postmaster W. Hall Harris has announced that the resignation from the service of Mr. George W. Wright, superintendent of the city delivery division of the Baltimore postoffice, had been accepted. The position had been filled by the appointment of Mr. Ernest Green, for many years private secretary to the present postmaster and to Mr. S. Davies Warfield, his predecessor in office. Mr. Green had been connected with the service for 14 years. He was private secretary to Mr. Warfield until February, 1905, when Mr. Harris was appointed, and he was retained. Before his connection with the service he was confidential clerk to the late Severn Teakle Wallis. He is 39 years old and was born in Alexandria. He received his education in private schools of Alexandria and the public schools of Baltimore.

Nearly 800 people patronized the moving picture exhibit of the Alexandria Amusement Company Saturday night and spoke highly of the merits of the show. Tonight a thrilling drama will be presented which everyone should witness.

THE CHURCHES.

Yesterday was an ideal day, the temperature being normal morning, noon and night. The mercury ranged between 63 and 87°. There was little wind, and the skies were clear all day. The churches were fairly well attended. Rev. J. Howard Wells conducted services at the M. E. Church South at night. At the Baptist Church, Rev. A. W. Graves, of Washington, occupied the pulpit and at Christ Church Rev. T. N. Lawrence recently ordained a deacon at the Theological Seminary, preached in the morning. The other pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy.

The acceptance of the call to the First Baptist Church was read to the church at its morning service yesterday from Rev. W. F. Watson, who was relieved from his present charge at the South Street Church, Portsmouth, on the previous Sunday, and will sever the ties which have bound him closely to a loving and loyal people. He will assume pastoral care of the church here on August 1st next.

Rev. J. R. Sevier delivered a discourse in the Second Presbyterian Church on Sunday observance. His subject was, "Does Alexandria want a Sabbath Rest?" The reverend gentleman read several passages in the Old Testament referring to the sanctity of the Sabbath. He expressed the opinion that the present laws of the city and state should be enforced. There was a large attendance.

BOY KILLED.

The dead body of an unknown youth, about 18 years old, with sandy hair, was found upon the tracks of the Washington-Southern Railway a short distance north of the viaduct over the electric railway, between 11 and 12 o'clock Saturday night The remains were subsequently taken to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment, where an inquest was held this evening. The youth's head had almost been split open and there was an ugly gash on the lower portion of the right cheek. His legs had also been injured. No one could identify the unfortunate boy, nor was there anything in his pockets to indicate his name or residence. He was attired respectably in a gray suit of clothes. A card on his pantaloons contained the following: "7182, November 11, 1907, Belk Brothers, Charlotte, N. C. Made for Dr. G. R. Bridges." A pocketbook was also found in which were 50 or 60 postage stamps. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by having been struck on the head by a locomotive.

Hoyle.
Hoyle was not really the inventor of whist, although often so stated to be, but he was the first who introduced scientific whist to the public. A recent authority says that very little is known of Hoyle's personal history except that he was a barrister by profession and held the post of registrar of the prerogative in Ireland. He was born in 1670 and died in Cavendish square in 1767 at the advanced age of ninety-seven years. He received the sum of £1,000 from his publisher for his treatise on whist, which ran through five editions in one year and was extensively pirated. Hoyle is said to have given lessons in whist at a guinea a lesson. One of his great points was the calculation of probabilities at various stages of the rubber. This at first was deemed so important in guiding players that a famous mathematician used to frequent the coffee houses (the old substitute for the modern clubs) and give his opinion on the state of the odds at any stage in a game of whist in return for a small fee from the players.—Glasgow Times.

Crossing the Ocean.
The following bits of conversation may be heard several thousand times each day:

"I think those people down in the steerage have a much better time than we do. But don't they look just like so many animals?"

"Don't those clouds over there look just like land?"

"Somebody said we aren't far from an iceberg, but I don't know whether it's so or not. You hear so many false reports on shipboard."

"Have you met the captain yet? I hope you didn't ask him any foolish questions, poor man!"

"No; I haven't seen a whale yet, but there were lots of porpoises around the ship today."

"Who is that man? I haven't seen him before. He must have come on board during the night." (Always funny.)

"Did the postman bring you anything this morning?" (Sure of a bowl.)

"Is this your first trip to Europe? My, but you have a treat in store!"—Princeton Tiger.

As Arranged For Older Children.
Miss Mary was the possessor of a diminutive and immature specimen of the Ovis aires, a wool bearing and ruminant quadruped, whose flesh is highly esteemed by persons to whose gustatory organs its flavor is agreeable.

The shaggy and agglomerated filaments constituting in their collective capacity its natural outer covering, integument or garment presented to the vision a surface absolutely etiolated and albified and rivaling in immaculateness the lustrous mantle of crystallized vapor that commonly characterizes the winter landscape.

And to whatsoever locality, contiguous or remote, whither Mary's vagrant fancy, the call of duty or, perchance, the parental mandate impelled her, when not otherwise engaged, to betake herself, this juvenescent representative of the genus Ovis aires, with a fidelity remarkable in one so immature and inexperienced, could be counted upon with absolute and entire certainty to accompany her.—Chicago Tribune.

Fortune For Forgers.
The last person to suffer death for forgery in London was a Thomas Maynard, who was executed on Dec. 31, 1829. It was not, however, until 1832 that the death penalty for the crime was replaced by transportation, though even then an exception was made in the case of forging or altering a will. This exception was not removed from the statute book until 1837. In the days of good Queen Bess a forger of deeds was very severely dealt with. He had to stand in the pillory; his ears were cut off, his nose slit, and he was branded with hot irons. If he survived these ordeals he was doomed to imprisonment for the rest of his days, and everything he possessed in the world was forfeited to the crown. Surely death would have been far more merciful.

Waifs Who Became Famous.
The list of waifs who have become famous, says the Delineator, is a long one. It includes Sir Henry Stanley, Queen Catherine the Good, Alexander Hamilton, Rosa Bonheur, Edgar Allan Poe, Rachel, Leonardo da Vinci and dates back as far as Moses. All these were homeless children—children who if left to their fate would undoubtedly have drifted into evil ways. Instead they have lived to add glory to their names and have contributed to the knowledge of the world at large through the fruits of their genius.

Smartness.
Do not be "smart." Whenever you see any of your mates showing signs of "smartness" in his work, his talk or his play take him by the hand, or both hands, or by the back of the neck, if necessary, and lovingly, playfully, but firmly, lead him to a knowledge of higher and more interesting things. In these words of Mr. Kipling is presented the gospel of real life, of common sense and of universal experience.—New York Outlook.

Disease and Remedies.
It is almost a truism among physicians that the intractability of a disease may be measured by the number of "infallible" remedies for it which from time to time have been recommended.—London Times.

Sociologist Defined.
"Uncle Henry, what is a sociologist?"

"A sociologist, my boy, is a person who can inspect a garbage can and find enough material in it for a long lecture on the needs of society."—Chicago Tribune.

Coming to an Understanding.
In the amiable way of villagers they were discussing the matrimonial affairs of a couple who, though recently wed, had begun to find the yoke of Hymen a burden.

"'Tis all along o' these hasty marriages," opined one caustic old gentleman, who had been much to the fore in the discussion. "They did not understand each other. They'd nobbut knowed each other for a matter o' seven year."

"Well, that seems long enough," said an interested lady listener.

"Long eno'! Bah! Ye're wrong! When a body's coortin' he canna be too careful. Why, my coortship lasted a matter o' nineteen year!"

"You certainly were careful," agreed the lady listener. "And did you find your plan successful when you married?"

"Ye jump to conclusions," said the old man impatiently. "I understood her then, so I didna marry her!"—St. James' Gazette.

Poor Comfort.
Apropos of the pretensions of those who might be counted as in society, Mrs. Bloomfield Moore in her book on "Sensible Etiquette" tells the following story:

A snobbish young man and his sister after their return home from an evening party were criticising the company, quite unaware that their sensible old uncle was lying awake in his chamber and could hear every word from where they stood in the corridor.

"Why, even the Grinders were there, and you know their father was a grocer. I was never in such a mixed company," said the sister.

"And we will never be again if I can help it," answered the brother.

The uncle called out: "Children, what do you think your grandfather was? He was a bootmaker, and some people say not a very honest one either. Now go to bed."

Cramp Rings.
Formerly it was customary for kings of England on Good Friday to hallow certain rings, the wearing of which prevented cramp or epilepsy. They were made from the metal of decayed coffins and consecrated with an elaborate ceremony, some details of which are still preserved. They were "highly recommended by the medical profession" about 1557, for Andrew Boorde in his "Breviary of Health," speaking of cramp says, "The kynge's majeste hath a great helpe in this matter in hallowing crampe rynges without money or petition." Occasionally cramp rings played a persuasive part in diplomacy. Lord Berners, our ambassador at the court of Charles V. wrote in 1508 "to my lorde cardinall's grace" for some "crampe rynges," with trust to "bestowe them well, by God's grace."—Westminster Gazette.

Persian Burials.
In Persia two sticks a foot long are placed in the coffin to prop up the arms of the corpse when it rises from the grave and is being questioned by the angel Gabriel. After it has satisfied the angel that it is the body of a true Mussulman it will receive strength to stand alone. A glance from a dog is necessary to drive away the spirit of defilement, and for this purpose a street cur is brought into the room of death and its eyes led to the corpse by a tempting bit of bread laid on the still breast.

Restlessness.
Mere restlessness is not a matter for which physicians are often consulted. It is on the face of it an unimportant malady, but when it exists in sufficient intensity to form the subject of complaint and to induce the sufferer to seek advice it is usually found to be the superficial indication of a grave underlying condition.—Hospital.
